

Educational Data Notice

Version 1.0 · June 06, 2026 · hello@spedgenie.com · spedgenie.com

This notice must be acknowledged before using Student Intelligence™, District Documentation™, Progress Monitoring™, or any document upload feature.

Notice

SPEDGenie is designed for educational professionals. Users must follow district policies regarding student records and personally identifiable information (PII).

Your Obligations When Using SPEDGenie

- Use student codes or initials instead of real student names whenever possible.
- Do not upload information that is unnecessary for instructional planning.
- Do not upload full IEPs or evaluations unless your district has approved AI-assisted document processing.
- Uploaded documents are automatically deleted from memory after extraction.
- SPEDGenie is designed to extract instructional insights — not to serve as a permanent repository of student records.
- You remain responsible for following your district's data governance policies, FERPA, and applicable state law.

What SPEDGenie Never Extracts or Stores

- Student names, dates of birth, or home addresses
- Social Security numbers or student ID numbers
- Parent or guardian contact information
- Medical insurance or Medicaid information
- Transportation information
- Original uploaded documents (deleted immediately after extraction)

Acknowledgment

By using SPEDGenie's AI-powered features, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this Educational Data Notice and agree to follow your district's policies regarding student records before entering or uploading educational information.
